

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

IN the compilation of these Lists, the Editor hopes he has prepared a useful book of reference; and this is all he aims at; he has spared no pains to make it as correct as possible; while doing this, he has encountered considerable difficulties, in reconciling the palpable contradictions, as to dates and facts, which occur in many of the books he has had occasion to refer to.

Some of the lists have appeared before, but only in disjointed portions; others have never been attempted in any form.

In a work of this nature, more labour is required than appears on a summary view; the several facts, concentrated in a single line, have been sought for far and wide.

In commencing at the time of the Reformation, the Editor is aware that some of the lists are considerably foreshortened; but by far the greater part are complete within that period: it would be difficult to furnish an earlier list of County Sheriffs, with their residences; though it would be highly desirable to do so; nor is he aware of any source which would supply an earlier list of Members for the County or for Lynn.

The list of Lord Lieutenants is, it is feared, incomplete; particularly in the early part of it, as the changes in that office were then much more frequent and capricious than at present.

It is presumed that the present period is appropriate for publishing such a work; as it will contain the Members of the ancient Boroughs, both Parliamentary and Corporate, down to the time in which they have been abolished, or remodelled by the recent Reform Act.

A Feature, new to this work, is the insertion of the place of Residence of the Members of Parliament, &c. this, it is hoped, will give it a kind of local interest to Norfolk men generally; and to the Anti-quary in particular; who delights with keen endeavour, to trace in some obscure & unfrequented village, the slight remains of the once stately mansion of the former Senator, or Sheriff of the Shire.

It is hoped that the work will be acceptable as throwing some light on the Biography of the County ; by now and then furnishing a name, or date.

Should the plan be adopted generally in other Counties, a vast mass of information would be accumulated, which would be found eminently useful as matter of reference. If this little work should be the starting point from which such a chain should be produced ; the Editor will be greatly delighted with the result.

As some of the lists are entirely new, he is aware that by furnishing them, he exposes himself to a certain degree of obloquy ; as a first attempt must necessarily be imperfect ; and readers are enabled to say, such a thing is omitted, another is not properly inserted, &c. but this he is content to bear, and is willing that this little book should be a mere base-line, and he hopes it will be so, from which to measure the upward progress of future works of others, more perfect in plan, and more elaborate in detail.

In publishing these lists, the Editor seeks neither fame nor emolument ; he only wishes to supply, what appears to him, to be a desideratum to the Collector, and Antiquary ; and he will continue to amuse himself by collecting materials to enlarge and improve a future edition, should it be required ; with this view he respectfully solicits, through the printers, such communications as may be desirable for that purpose.

In order to avoid useless repetition, throughout these lists, where a Town or Village is situated in Norfolk, the County is not mentioned ; in all other cases, the name of the Shire is added.

Henry Ratcliffe,† Earl of Sussex, he resided at Attleborough, succeeded to the Earldom 1542, ob. 1556.

* In Armstrong's History of Norfolk, it is said that Lord Lieutenants of Counties, were first instituted July 24th, 1549.

This is, as the Editor believes, the first published list of Lord Lieutenants of the County, and he is constrained to acknowledge that it is by no means a complete one; there are many vacancies, which he has not been able to fill up, although he has made the utmost research in his power, to supply the desiderata.

John Dudley, Earl of Warwick, when he came to quell the Norfolk Rebellion, in 1549, is called the King's Lieutenant; (see Blomefield, vol. 3, p. 255, Miller's 8vo. edition), but as he is not styled Lord Lieutenant, the Editor does not feel warranted to place him at the head of this list; for the same Author makes Sir Robert de Morley, Lieutenant of Norfolk, in 1337, see vol. 2, p. 436.

† On a small and scarce print of this Earl, he is styled Lord Lieutenant of Norfolk and Suffolk; and this is the only authority that could be obtained for placing him here.

‡ Here is evidently an omission of one, or probably several names; but the Editor is unable to supply them.

Robert Rich, Earl of Warwick, upon a small full length print of him, is said to be his Majesty's Lieutenant of Norfolk, Essex, &c. but without the prefix of Lord, his name is considered to be inadmissible on this list; he died 1658, æt. 71.

Thomas Howard,* Earl of Arundel and Surrey, was appointed Lord Lieutenant in 1625, when he resided at his Palace in Norwich ; he died at Padua, 1646.

Henry Howard,† Lord Maltravers, son of the above, was Lord Lieutenant in 1639, he succeeded Earl of Arundel, in 1646, ob. 1652.

Horatio 1st Viscount Townshend,|| of Rainham, appointed in 1660, when he was Sir Horatio Townshend, Bart. he died in 1697.

* Blomefield, vol. 3, p. 371.

† Blomefield, vol. 1, p. 306, says, that Henry, Earl of Northampton, was Lord Lieutenant of Norfolk after 1627 ; now Henry Howard, Earl of Northampton, died in 1614 ; and there has been no Earl of Northampton by the name of Henry since that time ; therefore this must be an error. Blomefield probably meant Henry Howard Lord Mowbray and Maltravers, as he was called till his father's death, in 1646.

‡ A small Military Work, translated from Praissac, by John Cruso, printed at Cambridge, 1639, is dedicated to the Right Hon. Henrie Lord Matravers, Lord Lieutenant of his Majesty's Forces in Norfolk and Norwich. On this authority only, his name is here inserted.

“ In 1642, the two Houses of Parliament resolved, that all the Lord Lieutenants in England, should bring in their Commissions and cancel them as illegal.”

“ In 1655, Cromwell divides the Kingdom into eleven districts, and in each places an Officer, called Major-General-Civil, who had an absolute command of the Forces in his division, and great power in civil causes.” See Salmon's Chronological Historian.

|| Blomefield, vol. 3, p. 403.

Robert Paston,* 1st Earl of Yarmouth, of Oxnead, was Lord Lieutenant in 1680, and in 1682, when he died.

Henry Howard,† 7th Duke of Norfolk, appointed in 1682, when Earl of Arundel.

William Paston,‡ 2nd Earl of Yarmouth, of Oxnead, was Lord Lieutenant in 1687, ob. 1732.

Henry Howard, 7th Duke of Norfolk, re-appointed 1688, ob 1701.

Charles,§ 2nd Viscount Townshend, of Rainham, appointed 1701.

James Butler,|| Duke of Ormond, appointed 1713, and Viscount Townshend displaced.

* Blomefield, vol. 3, p. 418, and Richards' Lynn, vol. 2, p. 798.

† Blomefield, vol. 5, p. 257, and Richards' Lynn, vol. 2, p. 1204.

‡ In Chamberlayne's Angliæ Notitia for 1687, William Earl of Yarmouth, is Lord Lieutenant for Norfolk, and Henry Duke of Norfolk, for Berkshire and Surrey; therefore the Editor supposes that the Earl was appointed to this County on the accession of James II. in 1685; and continued to hold the office until that King's abdication; when he imagines that the Duke was reinstated as Lord Lieutenant of Norfolk, and so continued to his death in 1701. The Editor therefore ventures to adopt this arrangement, as Blomefield, vol. 1, p. 545, in Wright's pedigree makes Henry Duke of Norfolk, Lord Lieutenant in 1696, and Salmon says, that "King William on March 16th, 1688, appoints Sheriffs in all Counties in England; and on the 20th of the same month, he appointed Lord Lieutenants of the several Counties."

§ Blomefield, vol. 1, p. 545.

|| Blomefield, vol. 3, p. 435.

Charles, 2nd Viscount Townshend, of Rainham, re-appointed 1727, ob. 1738.

Charles, 3rd Viscount Townshend, of Rainham, appointed 1730, when Lord Lynn, ob. 1764.

John Hobart, 1st Earl of Buckinghamshire, of Blickling, appointed 1739; when Lord Hobart, ob. 1756.

George Walpole, 3rd Earl of Orford, of Houghton, appointed 1756, ob. 1791.

George, 1st Marquis Townshend, of Rainham, appointed 1792, ob. 1807.

William, 2nd Lord Suffield, of Blickling, appointed 1808, when Colonel Harbord; he succeeded to the title 1810, ob. 1821.

John, 2nd Lord Wodehouse, of Kimberley, the present Lord Lieutenant of the County, was appointed in 1821, when Colonel Wodehouse; he succeeded to the title in 1834.

* According to Salmon, in his Chronological Historian, "The Lord Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, in 1714, were altered almost all over England."

The Duke of Ormond was attainted in 1715, and consequently displaced; but as Salmon says, that Viscount Townshend was not re-appointed until 1727, a vacancy occurs, which the Editor is not able to fill up.

1836† Thos. O. Springfield	Horatio Bolingbroke.
1837 Thomas Brightwell	John Bateman.

* Alderman Moore was the last Mayor, under the Old Corporation, by the Charter of which the Chief Magistrate was chosen out of the twenty-four Aldermen, by the Freemen, on the first of May; and sworn into office, on the Tuesday before the Eve of New Midsummer-day.

There were two Sheriffs, one chosen by the Court of Aldermen—the other by the Freemen, on the last Tuesday in August, and both sworn into office, on New Michaelmas-day.

† Under the Municipal Corporation Reform Act, the Mayor is chosen by the sixteen Aldermen and forty-eight Councillors, from amongst themselves, on the ninth of November, and he enters upon his office on that day.

By the same Act, but one Sheriff is appointed instead of two; he is chosen by the Councillors, on the first of November, and enters upon his office on the ninth of the same month.

A LIST
PERSONS CONNECTED WITH NORFOLK,
OF WHOM
ENGRAVED PORTRAITS*
HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED.

Abel, Clarke, M. D. resided at Coltishall ; author of a
 "Journey in the interior of China," ob. 1826.

Abinger, James Scarlett, Lord, M. P. for Norwich
 1832; created a Peer and made Chief Baron of the Exchequer 1835.

* As this is the first published list of Norfolk engraved Portraits, it must necessarily be imperfect; but the Editor hopes that it may offer a hint, upon which one more complete and comprehensive may be modelled. And here he wishes to state; that in the Halls & Mansions of the County, are numerous valuable Portraits, which have never been engraved, of men, who in their day, were eminent for their virtues or their talents. Many of the Paintings are hastening to decay, and consequent oblivion. Surely, there are persons, who for the honour of the County, would be willing to rescue the memory of these Norfolk Worthies from such a fate, by patronizing the publication, in a cheap form, of a series of Engraved Portraits, of the great and good, whose deeds of by-gone days continue to shed a lustre over the Biography of our County.

- Adkin, Thomas, Esq. of Denver, ob. 182*.
- Aikin, John, M. D. of Yarmouth, author of "Letters from a Father to a Son," and many medical and other works, ob. 1822, æt. 75.

Note.—In forming this List of Tokens, the Editor has noticed only such as he has seen: undoubtedly, there are very many extant, which have not come under his cognizance.—Snelling, in his “View of the Copper Coinage of England,” inserted a very ample general list, of the Names of Tradesmen who published Tokens; and another, of the names and Places where they were issued; but as he kept them separate, they cannot now be appropriated.

It is presumed that the plan of this list is preferable; and as the Device, which generally occupies the centre of the Coin, is put in italics, the necessity for having plates is almost superseded.
